Geeked Out Presents the 25th Edition of Ottawa's Toy & Collectible Sale

Bringing local geeks together through fun and creative events!

Ottawa— June 15, 2024 — Geeked Out Events is proud to host the 25th edition of Ottawa's Toy & Collectible Sale. Bringing fellow geeks and nerds together under one roof for the ultimate geeky shopping experience! Attendees will get to shop from 120 vendor booths in a 20,000 square foot room filled with nothing but the best of toys (vintage to the hottest toys on the market today) to Video Games (retro to current) to Comic Books, Board Games, Trading Card Games, Anime, and Art. Vendors come from all over, from Montreal to Toronto, to sell and meet like minded individuals with a passion for everything 'Pop Culture'!

"It really is the most fun you can have in one location for geeks of all ages," said Jen Miller, attendee.

Affordable Family Fun

Held twice yearly, at the Nepean Sportsplex. Once in the Spring and again in the Fall. The 25th edition of Ottawa's Toy & Collectible Sale is set to be held October 5th and 6th from 10am-4pm (both days). Admission is ONLY $5.00 making this event affordable for everyone! Kids 12 and under get in free with a paying adult! "Our goal is to hold an event that not only brings geeks together in a fun environment, but also is affordable for everyone." Says Shannon O'Neill, co-owner of Geeked Out Events. "Besides, if our admission is affordable, it allows for attendees to spend more with our vendors who have worked hard for months sourcing, cleaning, sorting, pricing items to pass along to the next collector."

Entertainment & Raising Money for Local Charities

Geeked Out invites local cosplay groups, like Doctor Who Society of Canada – Ottawa Chapter, Capital Ghostbusters and Capital City Garrison – 501st Legion. All of whom raise funds for local charities. “We want to make it a fun event, for everyone, and while we are at it, we get to help them help others!” Says O’Neill.

Mission

“First and foremost, we are a Toy & Collectible Sale. Our Mission is to bring collectors and geeks together to buy, sell, trade and talk about Toys & Collectibles!” Says Patrick O’Neill, Co-owner of Geeked Out Events. “We also get to invite the BEST local artisans who create geek inspired art to join us as well. Some of our attendees come just for the artisans!” Adds O’Neill.
